

CHLOE SONG, PIANIST

16 year-old Chloe Song, a junior at Olympia High School, has a deep passion for music and performing.

Born in Hawaii, she began piano and violin lessons at the age of 5. She has been studying piano with Dr. Ramona Allen for the past 8 years and has won numerous awards. She has performed in numerous master classes, including master lessons with Dr. Rolim of UPS.

She is the winner of 6 First Prizes at the OMTA Concerto Competition, two Gold Medals (as well as two Silver and a Bronze) at the Chopin NW Competition, two-time winner of the WSMTA Honors Recital Competition, and First Prizes at the MCE Competition for both Elementary and Middle School divisions. She won First Prize for the inaugural Olympia Symphony Young Artist Competition and is thrilled to be performing with them.

In addition to the piano, Chloe is a talented violinist. She has been awarded 1st place at Solo & Ensemble, going to State with her chamber orchestra, trio, quintet, and piano solo. She has also been student-teaching for the past 3 years and regularly shares her music at a senior home. Some of her most favorite memories are performing with the Olympia Chamber Orchestra, playing concerti by Beethoven, Grieg, Chopin, and Tchaikovsky.

In addition to her music, Chloe loves school, serves as class president, plays varsity tennis, and enjoys skiing, traveling, and spending time with her family.
